3. All coins are guaranteed genuine and as described based on the most current information available to the cataloguer. Grading is a subjective art. Every effort has been made to be conservative in our grading. Please note that an auction sale is not an approval sale. Lots examined prior to the sale may not be returned for any reason except authenticity. Estimates given by the auctioneers are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value.
4. Terms are for cash, with invoices being due and payable immediately upon receipt and the auctioneers reserve the right to charge interest on any overdue payment on invoices not settled within 30 days of the sale date. Payment by check must be made in either US ($) or British (£) funds and drawn on an United States or British bank. All successful bidders outside of North America and the United Kingdom will be charged an additional $15 fee for bank charges. Visa and Mastercard (Access) may be used to pay your bill, however, a 3.5% surcharge is made for the use of your credit card, our cost from the bank.
5. Bidders not known to us must provide us with satisfactory credit references and/or pay the full purchase price or a deposit as determined at the auctioneer's discretion before delivery of lots. Minors are forbidden from bidding without a parent's signature on the bid sheet.
6. Estimates are in U.S. dollars ($US) and please bid in even dollar ($) amounts. Mail Bidder Protection. You may submit bids with confidence. Where competition permits, your bids will be executed at 10% over the next highest bid. Please note, that most bids below estimate are rarely reduced, due to heavy competition. If you bid over estimate, chances are that your bids will be reduced. In the case of tie bids - the bid received earliest wins. Bid by lot number. No lots will be broken.
7. A word on Reserves. If a lot is reserved, it will not be in excess of the estimate. Check your bid sheets carefully. The seller cannot assume responsibility for errors made by bidders.
8. Buyers accepting commission bids from other parties do so at their own risk and will remain responsible to the auctioneers for full settlement per the terms of sale for this auction. Buyers shall not be entitled to remove lots from the auction room during the course of the auction without the prior permission of the auctioneer.
9. Sales Tax and postage and handling are added to all invoices where appropriate. Postage and handling for any book lots will be invoiced separately at the auctioneer's cost.
10. Prices Realised are published shortly after the sale and mailed to all bidders who have participated in the sale.

The significance of the initials and names on early Thurian silver is still debated. From the period around 400 BC two signatures, Phrygillos (signing with ΦΙ or a finch) and Molossos, are accepted by most authorities as those of artists. The earlier period (425-400 BC) is sometimes marked with an alphabetical sequence of letters on the reverse, simply a series marker. The name Libys on the present piece, known from this specimen, the Jameson collection lot 1876 and Ars Classica XV, lot 192 (all three from the same pair of dies) is the only full signature from the period. With no evidence for a sequence of signing magistrates at this period, it is likely that this is the earliest artist signed piece from Thourioi.

The term apparently refers to magistrates whose responsibilities related also to the coinage.

Rare Autonomous Bronze of Gadara

252. SYRIA, Decapolis. Gadara. Autonomous. Year 1 (64/63 BC). Æ 20mm (8.69 gm). Helmeted bust of Athena right / LA ΠΟΜΗΣ above aplustre. Spijkerman 2. Choice EF, green patina. ($500)

In 64-63 BC Roman troops, under Pompey, liberated the Greek cities conquered by Alexander Jannaeus. Pompey personally supervised the reconstruction of Gadara. Gadara wished to make a record of their liberation by the Romans, and so in commemoration of this event they established the year 64-63 BC as the beginning of a new era for their history, as a substitution for the Seleukid era.

253. SYRIA, Seleukid Kings. Seleukos I. 312-280 BC. Æ 22mm (7.50 gm). Antioch. Circa 300 BC. Laureate head of Apollo right / Athena Promachos striding right; anchor in front. Newell, ESM 911. VF, brown patina. ($100)

From the first issue of coins from the new city of Antioch. The mint workers were brought in from Seleukia on Tigris, and the earliest coins have the beveled edge typical of that mint. The portrait of Apollo is from the statue by Bryaxis, and the Athena and anchor mark the successful Seleukid expansion.

254. SYRIA, Seleukid Kings. Antiochos III. 223-187 BC. Æ 24mm (15.54 gm). Ekbatana. Circa 205-200 BC. Diademed head right / Elephant walking right; anchor behind, monogram between legs. Newell, ESM 648. Fine, brown patina. ($125)

This series was struck in Antioch (cf. WSM 1107), but a great percentage must have accompanied Antiochos on his eastern campaign, where many were countermarked in Ekbatana.

255. SYRIA, Seleukid Kings. Antiochos III. 223-187 BC. Æ 22mm (11.53 gm). Ekbatana. Laureate head of Apollo right / Mahout guiding elephant right; tripod behind; countermarks: anchor and horsehead. Newell, ESM 656. Fine, brown patina. ($100)

258. PHOENICIA, Marathos. Year 147 (113/112 BC). Æ 21mm (7.59 gm). Laureate head of Zeus right / Filleted double cornucopiae. BMC Phoenicia pg. 125, 37. VF, black patina with earthen highlights. ($100)

This identification is based on the interpretation of the legend as Ethnarchos, Herod's title. The fabric does not resemble a Judaeian issue, and the motifs are to be found on many issues in Asia Minor and the Syria-Palestine area, although not in this combination. A coin deserving more in-depth research.

Probus was one of the greatest of the late 3rd century "soldier emperors". His campaigns against the usurpers Proculus, Bonosus and Saturninus left him unchallenged ruler of Rome, and his defeat of the Germanic forces at the borders of Gaul and Illyria restored areas long lost to the Empire. This rare coin type depicts a grateful Siscia in Illyria safe within its borders. Ironically, Probus would be murdered at Sirmium, not far from Siscia, by soldiers enraged at being put to work on a road building project, and resenting his boastful comment that armies would soon be superfluous in a pacified Empire.

"Racial and religious discrimination and the dispossession of large numbers of the native Irish population earlier in the century had assured a permanently discontented majority of the population, and tension exploded into open rebellion in October 1641." During late 1641 into early 1642 insurrection spread throughout, and when, in 1642, civil war broke out in England between Charles I and parliament, Lord Inchiquin was appointed to command the Protestant forces in Munster. The Lords Justices urgently needed coinage and issued this interesting and now extremely rare coinage that consisted of flattened silver plateware stamped with its weight.

Debased AV

984. COPY. Roman Imperial. Macrinus. 217-218 AD. Debased AV Counterfeit Aureus (4.15 gm). Laureate, draped and cuirassed bust right / ADVENTIVIA VGFE-LICISSIMO, emperor on horseback right. RIC IV, pt.2, 99. VF. ($150)

This electrotpe is not a copy of a genuine coin but rather a fantasy, and the RIC reference refers to another example made from the same dies (or mold) that appeared in the Paul Vautier collection (sold in Ars Classica No. 2, lot 1257). RIC has a footnote for this coin which states "If genuine this is a hybrid with reverse of Septimius Severus. But its authenticity is extremely doubtful. Probably a modern forgery." The author of this footnote was correct.

985. Imitation of Gordian I. Æ Sestertius (22.23 gm). Laureate bust right / Roma seated left, holding Victory and sceptre. Based on RIC 10. Not a Paduan, but an attractive early medal. 19th Century? VF, tan patina. ($75)

986. COPY. Roman Imperial. Basiliscus. 475-476 AD. AV counterfeit of AV Solidus (4.35 gm). Helmeted and cuirassed bust facing, holding spear and shield / Victory standing left, holding long cross. Type of RIC Hunter V, pg.490, 1. EF. ($100)

Debased AV

987. COPY. Byzantine. Constans II. 641-668. Debased AV counterfeit of AV Solidus (4.01 gm). Crowned bust facing, holding globus cruciger / Cross potent on three steps. Type of SB 953. VF, matte surfaces indicative of cast. ($100)

988. COIN DIE. For an imitation Venetian Ducat. 16th Century? Æ 18mm in height, 23mm in diameter at die face, widening slightly toward the base. (63.01 gm). Type of: doge kneeling before St. Mark holding banner, legends: S•M•VENETI•TEIIΔANO (?) DVX. Probably meant to imitate the Chios ducats minted under Leonardo Loredan, 1501-1521. Found on Chios. VF, brown and red patina with some verdigris. Unusual and important. ($3000)

992. Armenian Silver Bracelet. Circa 13th Century AD. Diameter 70mm (25.02 gm). Flat bracelet divided into two bands with rope borders, central device is a punched and engraved endless knot. Terminals are schematic engraved lion heads, with twisted wire rings in the loops forming the ears. Choice condition, fine flexible silver. ($1200)

Medieval Armenian artifacts are extremely rare. Even though Armenia has a long Christian tradition, dating to the 3rd Century AD, the prototypes for this bracelet are to be found in earlier times. The lion head motif is found on bracelets from Persia in the 1st Millennium BC and was also popular in the Greek world. For a Hellenistic example of this type of bracelet (in gold), see Fig 63 in, Greek Gold: Jewelry from the Age of Alexander, by Hoffman and Davidson, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. 1966.

993. Souvenir Saucer For Matthew Boulton and the Soho Mint. Circa late 19th to early 20th century. Possibly by W.J. Taylor? Diameter at mouth is 11.5 cm. Made from German silver? IMPRESSION FROM A DIE MADE BY MATTHEW BOULTON AT SOHO 1804. AND USED TO CONVERT SILVER DOLLARS CAPTURED BY THE ENGLISH IN THE SPANISH WAR. THE IMAGE OF CAROLUS III BEING THUS DEFACED. In the center is an impression made from a pattern die for a Bank of England dollar (ESC pg.52, Obverse K, pattern only). Patinated and attractive. ($100)

Whoever made this piece was not a numismatist, and did not realize that the die they used was a pattern and not the actual die used for the Bank of England dollars as implied. Also, the reference to 'Carolus III' per the Latin legend on the Spanish coins and not the anglicized 'Charles III' is curious.
